Access to Nara

Nara is located less than one hour from Kyoto and Osaka.

Nara was the capital of Japan from 710 to 740, prior to Kyoto (794-1868). It was a city of international cultures in those days, with strong connections with Korea, China, Middle East, and even Europe through the Silk Road.

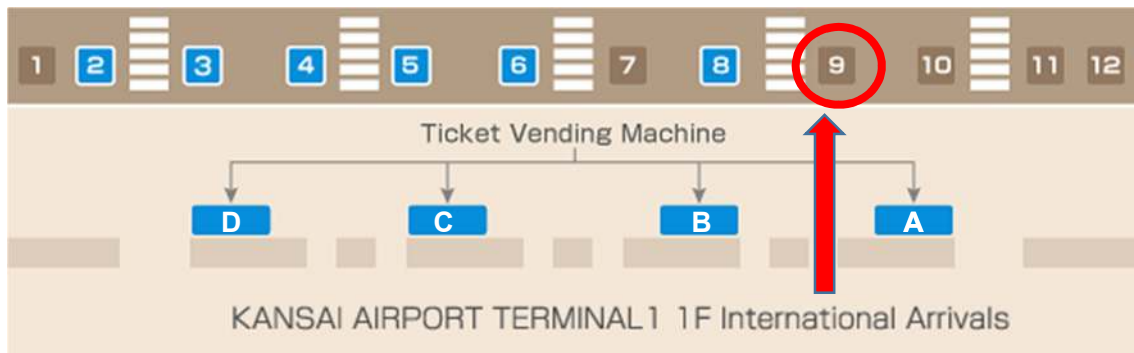

Due to its past as the first permanent capital, it remains full of historic treasures, including some of Japan's oldest and largest temples.

How to ride the city bus

The city bus (Nara Kotsu Bus Lines) operates both front- and rear-boarding buses. When you use the bus in Nara, please pay attention to the entrance.

1. Front-boarding type

On a front-boarding bus, pay the fixed fare when you board.

(If you have the Nara Bus Pass, please show it to the driver when you get on the bus. And you will be allowed to ride this bus.)

2. Rear-boarding type

On a rear-boarding bus, please take a boarding ticket from the ticket printer as you board and then pay the specified fare for your stop when you get off the bus. Fares are shown on a fare chart beside and above the driver's seat; look for your ticket's number to find the correct fare. Drop your fare and boarding ticket into the fare box when you get off.

(If you have Nara Bus Pass, please take a boarding ticket when you board. Then show your Pass and boarding ticket to the driver when you get off the bus without any other payments in allocated area.)

Please take a Boarding Ticket from this box !

When you want to get off

When the name of your stop is announced, please press one of the stop buttons located near your seat. The bell will tell the bus driver that someone wishes to get off at the next stop.

Stop Button

How to pay for the bus

Please drop your fare and numbered ticket into the opening at the top of the fare box (Fare Slot).

To pay with cash, refer to the number on the ticket taken at the rear door and compare it with the electric board at the front. The price under the same number of the boarding ticket is the fare for the ride. Buses do not provide refunds for those that overpay. Please prepare the specified fare for your ride, or change 500 yen coin or 1,000 yen bill into coins in advance at the machine next to the driver's seat. Please note that the change machine does not accept 2,000 yen, 5,000 yen and 10,000 yen bills.
